

Ruler Work on the Domestic Machine, presented by Fabric Affair in association with Oakland County Quilt Guild

Image from Canuck Quilter

Class on September 16, 2022

Location Fabric Affair Quilt Store Classroom, 1790 Livernois, Troy, MI 48083

All day class – 9.00 am – 4.00 pm, lunch included

Price $99 per student

Max number of students 20

The goal of the class is to introduce you to ruler work using a domestic sewing machine.

You will leave the class with a quilted project suitable for a crib quilt/wall hanging.

Supplies

- A 42" x 54" quilt sandwich or similar size quilt top, sandwiched for quilting
- Your machine in good working order
- Needles, thread to match your project, basic sewing supplies
- The correct ruler foot for your machine ***
- Rulers you already have for machine quilting, suitable for your machine's shank height

Fabric Affair will provide

- Classroom facilities
- Lunch and refreshments (please notify any special dietary needs or allergies)
- All tuition
- Some basic demo rulers to be shared with other students
- A selection of rulers for purchase

Oakland County Quilt Guild/Fabric Affair Class
Ruler Work on the Domestic Sewing Machine

Signup Form

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Cost $99 – Payment method:

In plenty of time BEFORE the workshop please research and purchase the right ruler foot for your machine. Sometimes this requires a 'special order' depending on manufacturer.

Return Form and payment $99 made out to Oakland County Quilt Guild to:

Sarah Bush

1699 White Birch Ct

Troy, MI 48098

Questions? Cell 248 703 2345 - email bu5hsarah.sb@gmail.com